MISSOULA--

William R. Griffiths and Nancy L. Kelly were selected by a campus committee to reign as University of Montana Homecoming king and queen Friday and Saturday, Oct. 7-8, in Missoula.

Griffiths, 19, a sophomore in economics and political science at UM, and Kelly, 19, a sophomore in journalism and social sciences on the Missoula campus, were crowned Friday during the homecoming singing on the steps in front of Main Hall.

The king and queen, who attended the UM alumni awards dinner Friday at the Village Motor Inn, also rode in the Montana Days and UM Homecoming parade Saturday morning in the Garden City, and they were introduced during half time of the UM Grizzlies' Homecoming football game with the Boise State Broncos Saturday afternoon at Dornblaser Field.

Griffiths, a native of Butte, is a June 1976 graduate of Redwood High School, Larkspur, Calif. He is a member of the UM chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, a social fraternity, which sponsored him in the homecoming royalty competition. He is son of Morgan and Jean Griffiths, 142 Endeavor Drive, Corte Madera, Calif.

Kelly, who lived in various California cities a number of years, is a May 1976 graduate of Pocatello High School, Pocatello, Idaho. She is a member of the UM chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, a social sorority, which nominated her for homecoming queen. Kelly is daughter of William M. and Virginia C. Kelly, 1452 Bench Road, Pocatello.
